

Extra coverage to help pay for the unexpected!

Aetna Hospital Indemnity Plan

For medical costs or everyday living expenses

Medical plans help you pay for covered out-of-pocket costs when you're in the hospital. But they don't cover all expenses.

For a little help paying these other costs, there's the Aetna Hospital Indemnity Plan. You can use it to cover your deductible and coinsurance costs. Or for things like a mortgage, child care or utility bills.

More features you'll like

- It's affordable and you won't be turned down for health reasons.
- Covered benefits include payments for planned and unplanned events.
- Payments are made directly to you.
- Your premium payments can be made through payroll deductions at work.

Why is a Hospital Indemnity plan important?

Unexpected hospital stays:
At least 35 million Americans are hospitalized each year.¹

and ...

2 out of 4 covered workers ...

are in plans with a deductible of $1,000 or more for single coverage.²

So why not plan to cover some of the costs, just in case? Don't wait, enroll today.

Questions & Answers

Do I have to be Actively at Work to enroll in coverage?

Yes, you must be actively at work in order to enroll and for coverage to take effect. You are actively at work if you are working, or are available to work, and meet the criteria set by your employer to be eligible to enroll.

Can I enroll in the Aetna Hospital Indemnity plan even though I have a Health Saving Account (HSA)?

Yes, you can still enroll in the Aetna Hospital Indemnity plan if you have a Health Savings Account.

What is considered a Hospital Stay?

A Stay is a period during which you are admitted as an inpatient; and are confined in a hospital, non-hospital residential facility, hospice facility, skilled nursing facility, or rehabilitation facility; and are charged for room, board, and general nursing services. A Stay does not include time in the hospital because of custodial or personal needs that do not require medical skills or training. A Stay does not include routine nursery and newborn expenses. A Stay specifically excludes time in the hospital for observation or in the emergency room unless this leads to a Stay.

If I lose my employment, can I take the Hospital Indemnity Plan with me?

Should you lose your job, you are able to continue coverage under the Portability provision. You will need to pay premiums directly to Aetna.

How do I file a claim?

Go to www.aetnavoluntaryforms.com to find your benefit claim form. Use the "Online claims process" link to fill out the form and submit your claim. You also have the option to print/mail in form(s) to: Aetna Voluntary Plans, PO Box 14079, Lexington, KY 40512-4079, or you can ask us to mail a printed form.

What should I do in an emergency?

In an emergency, call 911 or your local emergency hotline, or go directly to an emergency care facility.

What if I don't understand something I've read here, or have more questions?

Please call us. We want you to understand these benefits before you decide to enroll. You may reach one of our Customer Service representatives Monday through Friday, 8 a.m. to 6 p.m., by calling toll free 1-888-772-9682. We're here to answer questions before and after you enroll.

Important information about your benefits

The Aetna Hospital Indemnity Plan is a hospital confinement indemnity plan with other fixed indemnity benefits. This plan provides LIMITED BENEFITS. This plan pays you fixed dollar amounts regardless of the amount that the provider charges. You are responsible for making sure the provider's bills get paid. These benefits are paid in addition to any other health coverage you may have. This disclosure provides a very brief description of the important features of the benefits being considered; it is not an insurance contract and only the actual policy provisions will control.

IN ORDER FOR ACCIDENT BENEFITS TO BE PAYABLE, THE ACCIDENT MUST OCCUR WHILE COVERAGE FOR THE INSURED PERSON IS IN FORCE.

Complaints and appeals

Please tell us if you are not satisfied with a response you received from us or with how we do business. Call Member Services to file a verbal complaint or to ask for the address to mail a written complaint. You can also e-mail Member Services through the secure member website. If you're not satisfied after talking to a Member Services representative, you can ask us to send your issue to the appropriate department. If you don't agree with a denied claim, you can file an appeal. To file an appeal, follow the directions in the letter or explanation of benefits statement that explains that your claim was denied. The letter also tells you what we need from you and how soon we will respond.

We protect your privacy

We consider personal information to be private. Our policies protect your personal information from unlawful use. By "personal information," we mean information that can identify you as a person, as well as your financial and health information. Personal information does not include what is available to the public. For example, anyone can access information about what the plan covers. It also does not include reports that do not identify you.

When necessary for your care or treatment, the operation of our health plans or other related activities, we use personal information within our company, share it with our affiliates and may disclose it to: your doctors, dentists, pharmacies, hospitals and other caregivers, other insurers, vendors, government departments and third-party administrators (TPAs).

We obtain information from many different sources —particularly you, your employer or benefits plan sponsor if applicable, other insurers, health maintenance organizations or TPAs, and health care providers.

These parties are required to keep your information private as required by law. Some of the ways in which we may use your information include: Paying claims, making decisions about what the plan covers, quality assessment, activities to improve our plans and audits.

We consider these activities key for the operation of our plans. When allowed by law, we use and disclose your personal information in the ways explained above without your permission. Our privacy notice includes a complete explanation of the ways we use and disclose your information. It also explains when we need your permission to use or disclose your information.

We are required to give you access to your information. If you think there is something wrong or missing in your personal information, you can ask that it be changed. We must complete your request within a reasonable amount of time. If we don't agree with the change, you can file an appeal.

If you'd like a copy of our privacy notice, call 1-888-772-9682 or visit us at www.aetna.com.

If you require language assistance, please call Member Services at 1-888-772-9682 and an Aetna representative will connect you with an interpreter. If you're deaf or hard of hearing, use your TTY and dial 711 for the Telecommunications Relay Service. Once connected, please enter or provide the Aetna telephone number you're calling.

Si usted necesita asistencia lingüística, por favor llame al Servicios al Miembro a 1-888-772-9682, y un representante de Aetna le conectará con un intérprete. Si usted es sordo o tiene problemas de audición, use su TTY y marcar 711 para el Servicio de Retransmisión de Telecomunicaciones (TRS). Una vez conectado, por favor entrar o proporcionar el número de teléfono de Aetna que está llamando.

ATTENTION MASSACHUSETTS RESIDENTS: As of January 1, 2009, the Massachusetts Health Care Reform Law requires that Massachusetts residents, eighteen (18) years of age and older, must have health coverage that meets the Minimum Creditable Coverage standards set by the Commonwealth Health Insurance Connector, unless waived from the health insurance requirement based on affordability or individual hardship. For more information call the Connector at 1-877-MA-ENROLL (1-877-623-6765) or visit the Connector website (www.mahealthconnector.org). THIS POLICY, ALONE, DOES NOT MEET MINIMUM CREDITABLE COVERAGE STANDARDS. If you have questions about this notice, you may contact the Division of Insurance by calling 617-521-7794 or visiting its website at www.mass.gov/doi.

Financial Sanctions Exclusions

If benefits provided under this certificate violate or will violate any economic or trade sanctions, the coverage will be invalid immediately. For example, we cannot pay group benefits if it violates a financial sanction regulation. This includes sanctions related to a person or a country under sanction by the United States, unless it is allowed under a written license from the Office of Foreign Asset Control (OFAC). You can find out more by visiting www.treasury.gov/resource-center/sanctions/Pages/default.aspx.
